In Today's Gospel, there is a great mystery in the will of God that all be saved. He knows the minds and hearts of all and does not judge in a human way. We hold onto the belief in the need of membership for salvation, but we do so in the light of the universality of salvation. Like the Canaanite woman we must persevere with a determined faith in seeking the truth in love, until all nations learn of God's salvation, and all peoples praise his name.

Thought for the Day – "I Had a Dream"

A nearby Parish Priest had this dream recently – worth sharing & considering...!!

I had a dream the other night that after we emerged from the slumber of Corona virus we had become a new and different type of church. Faith is not something just left to a Sunday morning but is part of every aspect of our lives – in how people respect and honour each other, their fellow humans and their world. Young people experience their parish community as a refuge and a source of support; they feel a sense of pride about their parish and are honoured to be called Catholic and followers of Jesus Christ. In this new experience of Church people's relationship with God is central to who they are and how they live.

Our parish is a community where everyone is involved, our church is a place where everyone is welcome, and our liturgies are moments of vibrant celebration which are both inclusive and life-giving. We are a faith community inspired by Jesus with a hunger and thirst for justice, a parish which has moved from maintenance to mission: from the security of sameness to the vulnerability of change. We joyfully proclaim the gospel in our care for each other, in our respect for difference and in our love for our world. Our Church is a church full of life and hope which rather than focusing on itself and its own perceived importance is inspired by Jesus to break the traditional moulds of the past and to be a voice for the poor and powerless. It is a Church which gets its hands dirty in the work of caring for the outcast, the refugee and the marginalised. It is a Church which listens before speaking, which announces before denouncing, which forgives without wishing to condemn. It is a Church where the willingness and courage to do something different will be stronger than the habit of doing things as they have always been done. The Church of my dream is a Church where the fire of imagination triumphs over the ashes of stagnation, a Church where the Spirit of God feels at home because it is a Church of joy, of life and of truth. I had a dream the other night that after we emerged from the slumber of Corona virus we had become a new and different type of church. I had a dream. It's God's dream for us.

Thank you for keeping catering in St Aidans & the Presbytery simple! Again please remember these rooms are in a Church setting & for the sake also of minding expensive carpet & chairs ... please NO egg sandwiches, salad sandwiches, cream or jam buns etc. Confine food to biscuits, buns, brack, simple sandwiches or cake that doesn't fall apart! Just use common sense. Remember most people have a mug in one hand and food in the other.

The Pastoral Council wish to remind all local groups & charitable organisations that for 2020 all Church Gate Collections held in Glenisland & Islandeady Churches must be held OUTSIDE the Church Gates as per conditions of the permit & NOT inside at the Church Doors. There will be no exception to this.

A Parish Prayer

Lord, bless our parish community at this difficult time.

Give me patience with myself and others so that I will not make these times any more difficult than they already are.

Grant me the ability to acknowledge my fears so that I will not hide from acting in a responsible manner.

Give me courage to overcome any selfishness that hinders any concern for others.

Grant me the grace to reach out to others by safe means and in a helpful way.

Give me courage when I am feeling lonely and the knowledge that isolation is a good thing for now and that I am never fully alone.

Grant me the gifts of kindness, patience and love.

Give me your blessing: in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Remember Me

*Speak of me as you have always done,
Remember all the good times, the laughter & fun.
Share the happy memories we've made,
Do not let them wither or fade.
I'll be with you in the summer's sun,
and when the winter's chill has come.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze,
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.
I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
but memories we've shared are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days may be a test,
but remember me when I was at my best.
Although things may not be the same,
don't be afraid to use my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while,
Comfort each other and try to smile.
I've lived a life filled with Joy and Fun,
Live on now & make me proud of what you'll become.*

Footprints in the Sand

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.

Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.

In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.

Sometimes there were two sets of footprints,

Other times there was one only.

This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life,

When I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat,

I could see only one set of footprints,

So I said to the Lord:

“You promised me Lord, that if I followed you,

You would walk with me always.

But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life

There has only been one set of footprints in the sand.

Why, when I needed you most, have you not been there for me?”

The Lord replied:

The times when you have seen only one set of footprints,

My child, is when I carried YOU”.

Islandeady 2020 Yearbook/Covid-19

The Community Council want to document the events of the year related to the Corona virus lockdown. It's a major event in world history so it's important to record it from a Parish/Community perspective. Were you off school, college or work? Were you working in a different way? Maybe you were confined to the house? Had you a major event planned and couldn't go ahead with it? Are you a frontline worker? Were your sporting or social outings curtailed? Did you volunteer to help others? Did you do something new or learn a new skill? Why not write out the effect it had on your life and the lifestyle changes you had to make.

Stories, poems & pictures welcome from all age groups. Email items to
