SEAN MCGUINNESS – A COMMUNITY HERO - RIP

Friday 3rd June 2022 had begun just like any other day we've had. However as the evening faded into dusk we were hearing that our good friend Sean McGuinness from Tobernadarry, Shrule had passed away. The whole parish and hinterland were in shock and disbelief. Hoping against hoping that the news that everyone was hearing wasn't true. For Claire, Karen, Gillian and the McGuinness and Tedders family, their worlds were turned upside down. We can't imagine what they were and still are going through. Our deepest sympathy and condolences to them all. We will be keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers.

What made Sean stand out amongst others? Well words like honest gentleman, family man, commitment and dedication were all words used to describe Sean on rip.ie. Wouldn't we all hope they will be words that people will use when writing about us one day.

Many in our group met Sean for the first time in September 2019, when he came back to Glencorrib Community Centre to help set up a historical society. We are a small group of 24. We discussed what we'd call ourselves and it was Sean who came up with the name Historical SGK and it became one of those groups that both sides on the parish got involved in. We met once a month alternating between Glencorrib & Shrule Community Centres. Meetings were informal. We'd have the cuppa tea and a biscuit. We never got around to electing a committee as everyone shared their views, suggestions and we had some great laughs. The group will agree in saying that Sean was our unofficial chairman. No need for an election when you had the likes of Sean on board. He was a shy man yet he would always make worthwhile contributions at the meeting. At the second meeting, someone said that they were a 'blow-in' and wouldn't know. But Sean was quick to remind us that half of the people sitting around the table were 'blow ins' too. As a Claremorris man who came to Shrule, he said, "I'm in Shrule now, so I better get 'stuck in' " And that's what he did. If Sean said he'd do something, it wasn't on his to do list for the next meeting but it would be done in the next day or so. He set up the Historical SGK Facebook page and was Martin Ryan's backup guy when Martin was setting up our new website www.shrule.ie Then Covid arrived on our doorstep in March 2020. But that didn't stop Sean. We can do stuff online for a while, he said and that's what we did. As a group we produced a lovely 32 page booklet of photos of things around us that were important and meaningful to us. His photo and story was left to the end of the book as it was the most meaningful contribution to the book where he told us about his younger brother Noel who passed away. Then in the summer of 2021, we applied for a heritage grant for a historical online map of the parish. Again, Sean got 'stuck in'. Firstly he produced a beautiful video <https://www.heritageweek.ie/projects/shrule-parish-steeped-in-history> of the features of our parish's historical, natural and environmental heritages. He'd message our Whatsapp group to say, "Yeah, that's done now and here's the link for it." However when Liam Donohue came on board naturally we got the grant.

Other groups will have their own great stories to tell about Sean, the GAA in particular where Sean was PRO, photographer, and write up man. He set up and managed the Shrule Parish Facebook page which broadcasts all Masses online and church news. This Facebook page was very important for funerals in particular during Covid. He was in our parish communications group too. The list goes on. But it was in his own Facebook page 'Shrule through a Lens' or STAL that's where his talents lay. It was his pride and joy. Many times, the family would find him in the office loading up a decades old video of some happenings in the parish that fascinated his viewers. He had a good team with Liam Donohue and John Murphy working with him cleaning up some old photos or video footage. He loved to get some old photos from either Cradock's' Bar or from someone down the street. But one thing you always got with any posting on STAL were the names of those in it. The most important part.

Sean was probably involved in some other groups too. That's the man he was. He was generous with his time and talents. But as I always say, "Behind every successful man is a woman and vice versa". Sean's family supported him fully in whatever task he took on. It's not easy to head out on a winters evening to attend a meeting, spend hours working on a project or whatever and that can't be done without family support. So we have to thank Claire, Gillian & Karen for loaning Sean's time and talents to us even for this short time. Someone said that he has left some big shoes to fill. I can't think of anyone who can fill them as well as Sean did. Sean we will miss you. You were a man we could all call friend. May you, your parents and siblings rest in eternal peace.

Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam.

From the members of Historical SGK

SÉAN

The sun went down behind KnockMa, stealing the light from the day and casting its shadows all the way to Mayo...
The heavy news clung to the evening's nightfall and spread its way past every bike leaning against a gable...
And into every backyard with a jersey on the line.
It took the wind from our lungs,
and the words from our tongues,
and left us sleepless, bewildered and numb.
The early morning's sun drew
the glisten from Dooley's lake
as the water made its peaceful journey over each and every stone at the Cloughán
and on into the Black River
past the castle and the mill.
The border bridge above comes alive with the sounds of early morning risers who pass
through the tidy village,
with its freshly swept paths and
its baskets of bright and colourful flowers.
The crow on the steeple knows
nothing of Facebook or Instagram, yet he puts on a show worthy
of any camera's lens.
He glides elegantly over the fields of Tobernadarry, Gurteen, Woodpark... earning his rest
on the lighthouse at Ballycurrin.
The midday sun soars high into the sky and warms up the ruins that lie in the green fields of Shrule, Glencorrib and Kilroe.
From the Abbey at Kille to the
mass rock at Ballynalty,
from the high walls of Dalgan
to the Turlough at Romolin...
there were stories of heritage
and history that were worth hearing.
There were reports of football matches
and local events that were worth knowing.
There were memories, and videos and pictures of the past that were worth seeing....
And we got to hear them, know them,
see them... because a gentle soul
took on a giant role.
And we were privileged.

THINGS YOU NEVER DO WHILST GROWING UP IN AN IRISH HOUSEHOLD....PART 2

1. Throw your dinner in the bin... Whether it be a lot or a little. Growing up on a farm there is always a hungry animal out the back that will eat your leftovers. Whether it has fallen on the ground or didn't taste right. It is just something you don't do!
2. Let the heat get out.... You walk into a room and don't close the door behind you in the middle of winter. This kind of act can be punished with anything from a mouthful of abuse to a slap on the side of the head, depending on how close you are to the offended party.
3. Leave the curtains pulled later than 9 o'clock in the day. "They'll think we're sleeping all day". I was never quite sure who "they" were but to leave the curtains pulled late into the morning is a definite on this list. It is seen as another act of laziness

RENEWAL OF ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT:
"Sit With Me Privately For One Hour Per Week And Unload Your Burdens Unto Me & I Will Refresh You!" An invitation from Jesus in Adoration of The Blessed Eucharist. A Speaker will give a short talk at all Masses on The Weekend Saturday 25th & Sunday 26th June 2022 DON'T MISS OUT!

THE GALWAY DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES takes place 22nd to 27th September 2022. It will be led by our new Bishop, Michael Duignan. For further info and booking please contact Joe Walsh Tours on 01 2410800 or email info@jowalshstours.ie

WORLD YOUTH DAY:

Parishes and Individuals are now invited to register their interest in either attending WYD Lisbon or organising a parish group to participate. Over the past year many parishes and people have noted in submissions for the Task Force and also preparatory meetings on Synod the importance of reaching out to younger people. World Youth Day will take place August 1 to 6 in Lisbon 2023. Package options and costs are still being determined and the registration system will open in September. At present it is intended to have the option for teenagers aged 16-18 to participate as well as those aged 18-29. This is a great opportunity to reach out to young people and connect them to young people in many parishes that will participate at WYD. A full pastoral programme for all pilgrims will also commence later in the year.

OUR CHURCHES are open every day not just Sundays. Drop in for some quiet time, prayer and reflection. God want full custody not just weekend visits

REMEMBERING YOUR LOVED ONES:

If you're loved ones from the parish are not listed in our weekly list and you would like them to be remembered, then please ☎ / Text 0863782156 or email glencorrib2000@gmail.com with their details. "To be forgotten is to die twice"

STAMP DONATIONS: You may have seen the box of stamps in Shrule post office, or the box in Glencorrib church porch? These used stamps are collected by a religious order based in Dublin called 'Handmaids of the Sacred Hearts' who recycle the stamps so they can be sold to stamp collectors. The money raised from this is used to give financial support to various projects the order is involved in around the world. They have sent some booklets which are available in the church porches with information on the work they are able to do as a result of your support. Thank you for your kind support, and if you have not recycled your old stamps, maybe you will consider doing it now.

I HEARD YOUR VOICE ON THE WIND TODAY

I heard your voice in the wind today
and I turned to see your face;
The warmth of the wind caressed me
as I stood silently in place.

I felt your touch in the sun today
as its warmth filled the sky;
I closed my eyes for your embrace
and my spirit soared high.

I saw your eyes in the window pane
as I watched the falling rain;
It seemed as each raindrop fell
it quietly said your name.

I held you close in my heart today
it made me feel complete;
You may have died...but you are not gone
you will always be a part of me.

As long as the sun shines...
the wind blows...
the rain falls...
You will live on inside of me forever
for that is all my heart knows.

I wish
more people
would understand
just how much
their words
and actions
affect others.

NOT SURE WHO WROTE THIS BUT IT'S BRILLIANT.

GAA legend Mícheál O'Muicheartaigh has turned 90. Here are some of his witty live commentary 'quotes'

Seán Óg Ó hAilpín: his father's from Fermanagh, his mother's from Fiji. Neither a hurling stronghold.

...and Brian Dooher is down injured. And while he is, I'll tell ye a little story: I was in Times Square in New York last week, and I was missing the Championship back home. So I approached a newsstand and I said, "I suppose ye wouldn't have The Kerryman, would ye?" To which, the Egyptian behind the counter turned to me and he said, "Do you want the North Kerry edition, or the South Kerry edition?" He had both – so I bought both. And Dooher is back on his feet...

Anthony Lynch, the Cork corner-back, will be the last person to let you down – his people are undertakers.

Colin Corkery on the 45 lets go with the right boot. It's over the bar. This man shouldn't be playing football. He's made an almost Lazarus-like recovery from a heart condition. Lazarus was a great man but he couldn't kick points like Colin Corkery.

The stopwatch has stopped. It's up to God and the referee now. The referee is Pat Horan. God is God.

Teddy McCarthy to Mick McCarthy, no relation, Mick McCarthy back to Teddy McCarthy, still no relation.

I saw a few Sligo people at Mass in Gardiner Street this morning and the omens seem to be good for them. The priest was wearing the same colours as the Sligo jersey!

40 yards out on the Hogan Stand side of the field, Ciarán Whelan goes on a rampage... it's a goal! So much for religion. He grabs the sliothar, he's on the 50! He's on the 40! He's on the 30... he's on the ground!

Pat Fox out to the forty and grabs the sliothar. I bought a dog from his father last week. Fox turns and sprints for goal... the dog ran a great race last Tuesday in Limerick... Fox, to the 21, fires a shot – it goes to the left and wide... and the dog lost as well.

In the first half, they played with the wind. In the second half, they played with the ball.

1-5 to 0-8... well, from Lapland to the Antarctic, that's level scores in any man's language.

Pat Fox has it on his hurl and is motoring well now, but here comes Joe Rabbitte hot on his tail... I've seen it all now, a Rabbitte chasing a Fox around Croke Park!

Teddy looks at the ball, the ball looks at Teddy...

Mike Houlihan for Limerick. He had his jaw broken by a kick from a bullock two months ago. He's back now. 'Twas some bullock that broke Mike Houlihan's jaw!

No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin, or his background, or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite.

- Nelson Mandela

In life, if you are intelligent, you are admired.
If you are wealthy, you are envied.
If you are powerful, you are feared. But if you're blessed with a good heart, you are remembered, always. It's not about the wealth, power, and intellect, but the LEGACY in life behind those people you've touched.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS:

Heavenly Father, we praise you and thank you for all you have done for us. We thank you especially for sending your Son, Jesus Christ, to visit and save us. We ask you to bless our family and all the people of our parish, especially those who are suffering in any way. Encourage those in our parish whom you invite to become priests, religious and permanent deacons, and grant them the generosity of mind and heart to follow your call. May they bring good news to our world today. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
