SHRULE & MOYNE CEMETERY MASSES - JULY 2021:

The parish pastoral council together with Father Vivian would like to sincerely thank you all for the wonderful turnout at the Shrule and Moyne Cemetery masses. Both cemeteries looked spectacular in the brilliant sunshine that the good Lord provided us with after two years.

Thank you to all who attended especially family members of those who passed away during the last two years. Thank you for family members volunteering to do readings, prayers of the faithful, reflections, music and helped with the distribution of Holy Communion. Thank you also to the ministry coordinators who helped contact families in organising the liturgy. A special word of thanks to Shrule & Moyne graveyard committees for having both graveyards looking so well and to Shrule for providing sound equipment also to those who organised seating and tables for the Mass.

A special word of thanks to John Heneghan who donated the Mass kit used for the Masses in honour of his father Fursey. Fursey did music for Shrule cemetery Mass for over 20 years right up to the year he passed away. It was very fitting then that the Mass kit donated was first used for Shrule cemetery Mass a fitting way to honour him. Thank you, John. This Mass kit will be useful for carrying all the necessary items for Mass held off-site. May their souls & the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

If you erase all the mistakes of your past, you would also erase all of the wisdom of your present. Remember the lesson not the disappointment

POPE'S MESSAGE FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

PART 3 of 3: The Vatican has released the message of His Holiness Pope Francis for the first World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, which will be celebrated this weekend Sunday 25th July on the theme 'I am with you always' (Mt 28:20). The text of his message follows below:

Dear Grandfathers and Grandmothers, Dear Elderly Friends,

The prophet Joel once promised: "Your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men will have visions" (3:1). The future of the world depends on this covenant between young and old. Who, if not the young, can take the dreams of the elderly and make them come true? Our dreams of justice, of peace, of solidarity can make it possible for our young people to have new visions; in this way, together, we can build the future. Dreams are thus intertwined with memory. I think of the painful memory of war, and its importance for helping the young to learn the value of peace. Those among you who experienced the suffering of war must pass on this message. Keeping memory alive is a true mission for every elderly person: keeping memory alive and sharing it with others. Edith Bruck, who survived the horror of the Shoah, has said that "even illuminating a single conscience is worth the effort and pain of keeping alive the memory of what has been." She went on to say: "For me, memory is life." I also think of my own grandparents, and those among you who had to emigrate and know how hard it is to leave everything behind, as so many people continue to do today, in hope of a future. Some of those people may even now be at our side, caring for us. These kinds of memory can help to build a more humane and welcoming world. Without memory, however, we will never be able to build; without a foundation, we can never build a house. Never. And the foundation of life is memory.

Finally, prayer. As my predecessor, Pope Benedict, himself a saintly elderly person who continues to pray and work for the Church, once said: "the prayer of the elderly can protect the world, helping it perhaps more effectively than the frenetic activity of many others." He spoke those words in 2012, towards the end of his pontificate. There is something beautiful here. Your prayer is a very precious resource: a deep breath that the Church and the world urgently need. Especially in these difficult times for our human family, as we continue to sail in the same boat across the stormy sea of the pandemic, your intercession for the world and for the Church has great value: it inspires in everyone the serene trust that we will soon come to shore.

Dear grandmother, dear grandfather, dear elderly friends, in concluding this Message to you...I ask the Lord that, also through his example, all of us may open our hearts in sensitivity to the sufferings of the poor and intercede for their needs. May each of us learn to repeat to all, and especially to the young, the words of consolation we have heard spoken to us today: "I am with you always"! Keep moving forward! May the Lord grant you his blessing.

FRANCIS

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY SUNDAY 25th JULY 2021

This weekend Sunday 25th July A special World Day will be celebrated to honour Grandparents and the Elderly world-wide in thanksgiving and in memory of those who are no longer with us. Some colouring pages and prayer leaflets will be available at each church.

We plan to mark the occasion by having a tree that will be planted in their memory at a later date. A well known quote reminds us that 'Someone's sitting in the shade today because someone planted a tree a long time ago'. Not only is this a wonderful way for families and parishes to honour grandparents and elders, it is also a wonderful way to give something to future generations.

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR

An 80-year-old couple was worried because they kept forgetting things all the time. The doctor assured them there was nothing seriously wrong except old age, and suggested they carry a notebook and write things down so they wouldn't forget.

Several days later, the old man got up to go to the kitchen. His wife said, "Dear, get me a bowl of ice cream while you're up." "Okay," he said. "...and put some chocolate syrup on it and a few cherries, too," she added. "You'd better write all this down." "I won't forget!" he said.

Twenty minutes later he came back into the room and handed his wife a plate of scrambled eggs and bacon. She glared at him. "Now, I told you to write it down! I knew you'd forget." "What did I forget?" he asked. She replied, "My toast!"

- JUDGE: You're on trial for excessive use of astronomy puns. How do you plead? PRISONER: No Comet...
- We were so poor growing up that for breakfast we had Ordinary K.
- When algebra teachers retire how do they deal with the aftermath?
- When I was young I was scared of the dark... Now when I see my electricity bill, I scared of the light.

PLEASE REMEMBER WITH A PRAYER THOSE FROM SHRULE AND GLENCORRIB PARISH WHO DIED ON THIS WEEK IN FORMER YEARS

ORDINATION FOR THE DIOCESE

My name is John Gerard Acton and I am from Knockaunranny in Moycullen. I am the youngest of four siblings. Please God, I will be ordained a priest for the diocese by Bishop Brendan at $3.00\,\mathrm{pm}$ on Sunday next 1^st August in the Cathedral of Our Lady Assumed into Heaven and St Nicholas, Galway.

Faith is something that was always very important to us at home and my sense of calling to the priesthood was by no means sudden – it was something that gradually increased over many years. I attended both Scoil Bhaile Nua in Moycullen and Coláiste Chroí Mhuire in Spiddal. I went on to study for four very happy years in GMIT and obtained a BA in business and communications.

I spent a number of years working in Debenhams department store before taking up a position in Park House Hotel on Forster Street shortly after

I began my initial formation at the national seminary in St Patrick's College, Maynooth, in August 2015. My six years there provided me with the opportunity to take a small step back and to discern what God really wanted me to do with my life.

I am very grateful to my parents Séamus and Maureen, family, friends and colleagues in the diocese and all those who have travelled this journey with me. I have been humbled by the support that I have received these past years in particular and I ask you to please continue to pray for me as I approach my ordination to priesthood and my forthcoming appointment in the diocese.

Due to current restrictions, attendance at the ordination will unfortunately be limited, but I would be delighted if you could join us online. The live-streaming link will be available in due course at www.galwaydiocese.ie/ordination

THE BUMBLEBEE (BUMBÓG)

A few facts about bumblebees.

- You can identify a bumblebee by its yellow banding and the colour of its tail. Our common bumblebees are white-tailed, red-tailed, buff-tailed, garden and field.
- Wild bees are skilled pollinators. They play a vital role in our fruit and vegetable production. As they visit flowers collecting nectar and pollen this encourages the plant to produce its fruit.
- In Ireland, we have 21 species of wild bumblebee. Six of these are cuckoo bees, just like the cuckoo these bees lay their eggs in the nest of other bees.
- There has been a reduction in the overall number of bumblebees in which 4 species are now endangered and 2 are on the vulnerable list.
- Loss of their traditional habitat, such as wild flower meadows/ borders and increase in pesticides has taken its toll on bee populations.
- A concern for this reduction has seen a significant increase in honey bee hives over the past number of years.
- An increase in pollinators is always welcome. However, the honey bee and the wild bees are both foraging for the same diminishing food source. It is thought that the bumblebee has a food reserve that would last only 2-3 days.

Small ways in which you can help maintain our wild bumblebee populations -

- Bees have very limited food supplies in the spring, so leave the dandelions for them.
- When cutting back brambles and ivy, leave a little for the bee as the flowers are vital food source. The flowers produce fruit which is food for wild birds.
- Plant lots of bee friendly flowers and flowering herbs in your garden.
- Avoid or cut back on using pesticides.

OUR CHURCHES are open every day not just Sundays. Drop in for some quiet time, prayer and reflection. God want full custody not just weekend visits.

JESUS didn't die so that we would come to church. He died so that we would become the church.

REMEMBERING YOUR LOVED ONES: If you're loved ones from the parish are not listed in our weekly list and you would like them to be remembered, then please 2 / Text 0863782156 or email glencorrib2000@gmail.com with their details. "To be forgotten is to die twice"

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Free Marriage Tip: Don't ask your wife when dinner will be ready while she is mowing the lawn.

KNOW YOUR OWN VALUE

A Dalgan man said to his daughter "You graduated with honours, here is a car I acquired many years ago. It is several years old. But before I give it to you, take it to the used motor dealer in Galway and tell them I want to sell it and see how much they offer you.

The daughter went to the used motor dealer, returned to her father and said, "They offered me $\[\in \]$ 1,000 because it looks very worn out."

The father said,"Take it to the charity shop." The daughter went to the charity shop, returned to her father and said,"The charity shop offered €100 because it was a very old car."

The father asked his daughter to go to a vintage car club and show them the car. The daughter took the car to the club, returned and told her father," Some people in the club offered €100,000 for it since it's a Nissan Skyline R34, an iconic car and sought out after by many."

The father said to his daughter, "The right place values you the right way," If you are not valued, do not be angry, it means you are in the wrong place. Those who know your value are those who appreciate you. Never stay in a place where no one sees your value.

- I yelled COW at a woman on a bike and she gave me the finger. Then she ploughed her bike straight into the Cow. I tried....
