THE PALLOTTINES were founded by Saint Vincent Pallotti, who was born in Rome in 1795. From his childhood he offered his life to the service of the poor, and founded the Union of Catholic Apostolate. At that time the laity was not actively involved in the ministry of the Church and Saint Vincent wanted to inspire people of all walks of life to work for God's kingdom. Saint Vincent wanted people to treat those in need "with care and with a loving concern". He died in 1850, leaving a legacy that continues to inspire people worldwide today. Br. Stephen Buckley SAC will be visiting the parish next weekend to update us on the work that the Pallottines are doing at the moment. There are a few envelopes on the porch table if you wish to take one away for a donation and drop it back to the church next weekend. Thank You.

DID YOU KNOW that the 1841 population of our parish was 5,087 and in the ten years that followed, it had dropped to 3,004 in 1851. A decrease of 2,083 or 41% due to deaths and emigration. Kilmaine saw a decrease of 34% (6,368 to 4,188) and Cong saw a decrease of 28% (5,359 to 3,839) Historical SGK

ROISIN NAUGHTON DANCE CLASSES on Fridays in Glencorrib Kilroe Community Centre now start at the new time of 3.15pm on Fridays.

RECEIVE COMMUNION by making a throne: One hand under the other, ready to receive OUR GREAT KING.

QUOTE UNQUOTE...

- Half the world is starving and the other half is trying to lose weight.
- "Life is like a piano. The white keys represent happiness and the black shows sadness. But as you go through life's journey, remember that the black keys also make music."
- The saddest part of life is when the person who gave you the best memories becomes a memory
- We all have days where we don't know how we will go on. Loved ones hurt us. Finances worry us. Sickness may overtake us. We lose people we love. But God will always be there to guide us through the tough times. Keep the faith...

A LITTE BIT OF HUMOUR: A woman got a pet parrott, but she was horrified to discover that all it did was say mean things and insult her. Nothing she did could stop it. She was especially worried because the whole family was coming over for Christmas dinner. But when the dinner finally came, the parrott didn't say a word the entire time. After the meal, the parrott turned to its owner and said, "Please forgive my behaviour from before, I was entirely out of line." "Wow," the woman said, "glad to hear it." "If I may ask," said the parrott, "what on earth did that turkey say to you?"

GLENCORRIB MAN
PATRICK MORAN
WINS BRONZE M65 IN BRITISH PENTATHLON CHAMPIONSHIPS

By Tom Hunt | May 9, 2022

In the British Masters Outdoor Pentathlon Championships hosted by Oxford City AC at Horspath on Sunday (May 8), Mayo AC were represented by Patrick Moran.

Patrick has competed successfully in various combined events championships over the years as well as National Masters indoors and outdoors.

He is also a member of our club sprint relay squad who welcome new members to develop and compete over the summer.*

Now competing in the M65 category, he travelled to Oxford to compete in the five track and field events which make up the outdoor pentathlon – long jump, javelin, 200 metres, discus and 1500 metres.

Points are accumulated according to performance in each of these disciplines during the course of an afternoon.

In 2017 Patrick competed in these Championships as M60 and won bronze with 2278 points. His 2022 details: long jump 3.23, javelin 21.65, 200 metres 33.99, discus 22.08, 1500 metres 6.51. These include M65 pbs for long jump, javelin, and 200 metres.

He says "it was a long day, check in at 9am and our last event at 5pm. Mercury hit 22°C after 12pm – very hot in Oxford. I did my best to keep hydrated. It was a very well run event. Guests are treated same as British athletes and receive deserved medals".

Hearty congratulations to Patrick on winning bronze M65 having accumulated 2033 points.

We can be rightly proud that we have members like Patrick Moran (pentathlon) and David Dinsmore (Lisbon half-marathon yesterday) – both in M65 category, whose dedication, resilience, and success are an inspiration to us all.

*A reminder that the Mayo Outdoor track championships take place at Claremorris on May 22. So get your entries in by tomorrow night. It's a great opportunity to see how well you can do in track and field events on the training track in our back garden. See details here for Claremorris entry etc: <https://www.mayoac.com/upcoming-fixtures/>

PLEASE REMEMBER WITH A PRAYER THE RECENTLY DECEASED

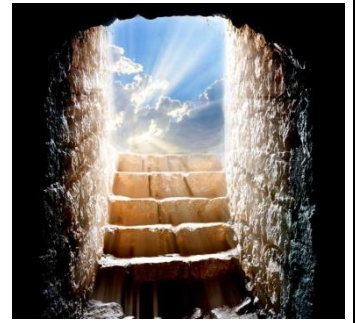

Michael Joseph Mulroe (Joe)
Cheshire, England and formerly of St. Mary's Rd, Shrule. Brother of Martin Mulroe, St Mary's Road. Joe passed away peacefully on Wednesday last 11th May (aged 81 years). Funeral Mass for Joe will place at All Saints R.C. Church, Carrington Lane, Ashton-On-Mersey, Cheshire on Wednesday 25th May @ 1pm. RIP

TODAY IS THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER and we are more than halfway through the month of May. When we reflect on the life of Jesus, we are going back thousands of years. No life of Jesus was written and no film was made of Him during His life. Everything we know about Him comes through Sacred Scripture, His Passion, Death and Resurrection. In today's Gospel Jesus asks his disciples to love one another "I give you a new commandment: love one another; just as I have loved you, you also must love another. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples" John 13: 34- 35. We ought to read the Gospels to get to know Jesus better. If we remain faithful to Christ and do His will, we will be united with Him forever as He is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Lord, grant that what we celebrate in worship we may carry out in our lives. Amen

You can't have everything. Where would you put it?

DARKNESS INTO LIGHT (NOT AN ADVERT)

We are fortunate that in our lifetime we enjoy a quality of life which would have been unthinkable a few generations ago. We enjoy an abundance of material goods and appreciate the ease of communication that makes the world into a global village. Yet despite all these stunning developments we are in the middle of a cultural decline that is evident in the escalation of violence, random shootings, gross materialism and hedonism. The countless number of people who have been treated for mental and related illnesses is becoming more alarming.

Each year we discover that numbers are increasing and at the same time people feel isolated in their struggle to cope. Psychologists and therapists are very much concerned that silent victims of darkness are reluctant to seek help at an early stage of depression.

Currently we are living with issues such as Covid, cost of living, war and insecurity that certainly affect all of us in different ways. Teachers are alerting us to this measure of depression in the classrooms, family dysfunctionality and poor self-image as well as bullying.

Dialogue is vitally important especially among friends if signs of unusual behaviour are observed. Recognising symptoms at an early stage may lead to breaking down the barriers of denial. Many times those who have recovered from addictions such as alcohol, drugs, gambling etc. are telling us that their recovery began when they got a listening ear. Sharing at a human level early on facilitates the victims of depression and darkness to the road of recovery

O Jesus, who died and rose again for love of us, dispel from our families and from society all forms of despair and discouragement, so that we may live as risen people and may carry your peace to all the world, through Christ our Lord Amen.

ST. TITUS BRANDSMA: Among ten people being canonised by Pope Francis today is the Carmelite Friar, Titus Brandsma. He was born to devout Catholic parents in the predominantly Calvinist province of Friesland in the Netherlands. He entered the Carmelite Order, was ordained and became a professor and later rector of the Catholic University of Nijmegen. There is an Irish connection. In 1935 he spent time with his Carmelite confreres in Whitefriar St., Dublin and Kinsale, improving his English in preparation for a lecture of the USA. At home, he spoke fearlessly against the rising ideology of National Socialism in Europe, especially because of the persecution of the Jews. Then the Netherlands were occupied by Germany in 1940, and he came to the attention of the authorities. The final straw came when he spoke publicly in favour of an instruction from the Dutch bishops telling Catholic schools to ignore a Nazi order to expel all Jewish children. "The church, in carrying out its mission, knows no distinction of sex, race or politics." He was arrested, brought to the infamous camp of Dachau, where he was killed by lethal injection in June 1942.

MANY THANKS TO CYRIL HYLAND

This notice should have been in this newsletter in 2021, it's late, I know but it has to be noted.

I'm sure you will all agree that local man Cyril Hyland from Ballisnahina is a very talented craftsman indeed. The work that Cyril has done in restoring and bringing to life the pews in Glencorrib Church is beyond compare. Many parishioners thought that Fr. Vivian had replaced the old pews with completely new ones. Take a look at them next time you're in the Church or area. This photo doesn't do them enough justice. Thanks again Cyril for a fantastic restoration job.

SHRULE OVER 55s are looking for new members. If you are interested in finding out more, please ☎ Marie 087-6305369 for more details. All are welcome.

GLENCORRIB KILROE COMMUNITY CENTRE NEWS

To book the community centre please

☎ Dell Mays on 087 7542740. It is now mandatory to book the hall before any meeting takes place. Thank You.

STAMP DONATIONS:

You may have seen the box of stamps in Shrulce post office, or the box in Glencorrib church porch? These used stamps are collected by a religious order based in Dublin called 'Handmaids of the Sacred Hearts' who recycle the stamps so they can be sold to stamp collectors. The money raised from this is used to give financial support to various projects the order is involved in around the world. They have sent some booklets which are available in the church porches with information on the work they are able to do as a result of your support. Thank you for your kind support, and if you have not recycled your old stamps, maybe you will consider doing it now.

A PRAYER OF PEACE

We pray for the people of Ukraine and their family members around the world. We ask that all those involved respond with wisdom and courage and that a peaceful resolution may be achieved. Lord, during these challenging times please lead us from despair to hope, from fear to trust and lead us from hatred to love. We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Prince and Peace. Amen
