3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy. [R]

SECOND READING 2 Timothy 2:8 -13

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to Timothy

Remember the Good News that I carry. 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it.

Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.

If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
For all things give thanks, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 17: 11 - 19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow for following three lines:

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

May the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.

Thanks be to God.

We come in thanks to God for his presence and care in our lives. The gospel is an invitation from Jesus to give thanks. If we think over all we can be thankful for, we often find more than we realised.

Nine were cured, and one was cured and healed! Something about Jesus brought these sick people to him. They had heard of him and hoped for a cure. He gave more than a cure; he offered an interior healing.

Jesus healed just by being who he was. His power to heal met the faith of the man or woman who came to him. He saw people as needing healing, without asking why. Pope Francis thinks of the church first as a sort of field hospital, being present for people ready to lend a helping hand or a listening ear.

One of the greatest needs today is to be heard. Often all we really need is to be heard. Even when someone drives you mad, maybe then they need to be heard. Listening can be healing – both for the speaker and the listener. The lepers in the Gospel today were outcasts – they cried out from a distance. They needed Jesus to hear them and take pity on them.

There is another part to this Gospel – the act of giving thanks. Only one among them remembers to give thanks. Pope Francis in his homily for this day in 2019 reminds us that being thankful is an expression of our faith: "A grateful heart is one that remains young. To say "Thank you, Lord" when we wake up, throughout the day and before going to bed: that is the best way to keep our hearts young..."

Jesus embraced the people whom nobody wanted. He cured with compassion. Our challenge is to be compassionate when helping others. Like Jesus, we try to look others in the eye with love and care before asking anything of them, to bring mercy, healing and a listening ear to the cares of people and of the world. This is sharing in the saving mission of Jesus.

As you heal and strengthen me, o Lord, may I do the same for others.

Donal Neary SJ, Editor Sacred Heart Messenger.

Jesus' Story

Fr. Liam Hickey

Ten people had skin disease. They had to leave home and live in the fields. They saw Jesus passing and shouted at Him, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us." Jesus stopped and listened to them. Jesus said, "Go and let the priest see you." As they went, they were all healed. There was one foreigner, and he was the one who said "Thanks." Even when we don't say Thanks, God loves us, but we are happier when we do give thanks.
