MAYO V TYRONE

What a game we have in store
 Provincial Champions no back door
 Mayo kingpins of the West
 Tyrone are truly Ulster's best

Both are lethal in attack
 Very solid at the back
 Centre field could rule the day
 Or could the goalies have last say

Supporters who are loyal and true
 For Sam Maguire they all queue
 Both are teams of strong tradition
 Sure to give an exhibition

A hop of ball, a lucky break,
 Decision that the ref might make,
 These are things that you require
 As you go in search of Sam Maguire

Adapted from a poem by Seamus Hora

WISHING THE MAYO GAA TEAM THE BEST OF LUCK IN THE ALL-IRELAND FINAL TODAY

SEASON OF CREATION: From the 1st September until the Feast of St. Francis, 4th October all Christian Churches are encouraged to celebrate the Season of Creation, an annual celebration of prayer and action inviting us to think more deeply about what is happening at present to the Earth and the destruction of the environment which threatens our world. As pilgrims let us walk together awakened to the wonder of the Earth, our Common Home, and the web of life which it shelters. Let us encourage one another during the season of Creation by praying with and for creation, encouraging small actions in our homes and parishes to try to live more sustainable lives. WEEK 2: ACTIONS ARE AN EXPRESSION OF OUR FAITH.

- "LOVE... makes itself felt in every action that seeks to build a better world" (Laudato Si', par 231)
- Father and Creator of all, You entrusted your world to us as a gift. Help us to care for it and all people that we may live in right relationship – with You, with ourselves, with one another, and with creation.
- We know God's message is that we should care for others. But we must also care for and try to heal our damaged world.

ADVERTISING: DON'T BE

- "The environment ... cannot be adequately safeguarded or promoted by market forces." (Laudato Si', par. 190.)
- How eco-aware are your favourite shopping brands?
- Watch out for vague statements like 'eco-friendly', 'sustainable', or 'green' in product advertising – they could mean little or nothing!
- For more info greenwashing, see Galway Diocesan website
www.galwaydiocese.ie/season-of-creation-2021

FAITH IN ACTION:

Our individual actions matter and they make a difference. Our parish actions bring us together as a community. Some of the essential changes to care for our common home will cause us personal inconvenience. But we can't put it off any longer – we need to make sacrifices now to protect the planet from further damage. Our faith and our prayers will help us persevere in making these changes.

A TRUE STORY: Clementine, Sir Winston's wife, was talking to a street sweeper for a while. "What did you talk about for so long?" asked Sir Winston. She smiled, "Many years ago he was madly in love with me." Churchill smiled ironically, "So you could have been the wife of a street sweeper today." "Oh no, my love", Clementine replied, "If I had married him, he would have been the prime minister today".

JOB VACANCY GLENCORRIB:

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR: Young man Murphy applied for an engineering position at an Irish firm based in Dublin. An American applied for the same job and both applicants having the same qualifications were asked to take a test by the department manager. Upon completion of the test, both men only missed one of the questions. The manager went to Murphy and said, "Thank you for your interest, but we've decided to give the American the job." Murphy asked, "And why would you be doing that? We both got nine questions correct. This being Ireland, and me being Irish I should get the job!"

The manager said, "We have made our decision not on the correct answers, but rather on the question that you missed." Murphy then asked, "And just how would one incorrect answer be better than the other?" The manager replied, "Simple, the American put down on question #5, 'I don't know.' You put down, 'Neither do I'.

"Relax! The early bird's still working from home."

WHAT DOES LOVE MEAN TO 4-8 YEAR OLD KIDS? PART 2

A group of professional people posed this question to a group of 4 to 8 year-olds, 'What does love mean?' The answers they got were broader, deeper, and more profound than anyone could have ever imagined!

- 'Love is what's in the room with you at Christmas if you stop opening presents and just listen.' Bobby - age 7 (Wow!)
- 'Love is when you tell a guy you like his shirt, and then he wears it every day.' Noelle - age 7
- 'My mommy loves me more than anybody. You don't see anyone else kissing me to sleep at night.' Clare - age 6
- 'Love is when Mommy gives Daddy the best piece of chicken.' Elaine - age 5
- 'Love is when Mommy sees Daddy smelly and sweaty and still says he is handsomer than Robert Redford.' Chris - age 7
- 'Love is when your puppy licks your face even after you left him alone all day.' Mary Ann - age 4
- 'I know my older sister loves me because she gives me all her old clothes and has to go out and buy new ones.' Lauren - age 4 love is...

WARNING: Please don't eat liquorice before bed. You'll dream about all sorts. ☺☺☺

JUST A THOUGHT: The weekend was dominated by 'Ground Zero', the echoes of that fateful morning 20 years ago reverberating throughout the world once again. Obviously, some of the debris from that explosion has yet to settle. And I don't mean just physically. It is estimated that up to 3,000 people from more than 60 nations were killed that morning. That is merely a rough estimate of the casualties. Parts of human remains are still being found twenty years later. Only this week, investigators identified the remains of two more victims of the 9/11 atrocity: one of the victims named was Dorothy Morgan from Long Island, and the other victim's name is being withheld at the request of the family. They became the 1,646th and 1,647th victims to be identified. Of the 2,753 people killed at the World Trade Center, 1,106 remain officially unidentified. Two planes struck the World Trade Center, one hit the Pentagon, and a fourth plane crashed in Pennsylvania, following an attempt by the passengers and crew to regain control of the plane. All 44 people on board were killed, including the four hijackers. Really the cumulative number of those killed in all four incidences will never be known.

Nothing very new here, you may say. Hiroshima, after all, claimed far more lives in an even more brief explosion. So why did the Twin Towers disaster have such an impact? 9/11 was never about numbers or 'the body count'; 9/11 was, in the vocabulary of terrorism, about the 'Spectacular'. The bomb was dropped on Hiroshima in the context of a world war. The explicit intention of that act was to bring that drawn-out world conflict to an end. 9/11 was intended to provoke war of another kind, to set two distinct civilisations at each other's throats.

9/11 was shocking at several levels. The primary level was human, of course. Ordinary workers were settling into another day's routine, commuters climbing up the gangway to take just one more flight. We have all been at the desk, or climbed the gangway. The fact that we could identify with them so readily made the atrocity all the more shocking. An additional dimension was the fact it happened 'live' on television. These real people had become bit actors in a surreal tragedy. Viewers pinched themselves: 'Is this for real?' Nonsensical questions flooded the mind: would I prefer to be in the death-dealing plane, or at my desk in the targeted tower? Yet the question is provoked by the knowledge that the powerless victims knew they were facing certain death: both those in the planes and those in the towers. The scenario is almost too awful to contemplate: such extraordinary evil engulfing and devouring such ordinary people.

Fr. Dick Lyng OSA

The images of that day will remain. It has become another of those 'Where were you when....' events. This weekend, let us pray for all those who lost their lives in 9/11, the emergency workers and police, their families and the peace makers who are still desperately trying to make this world of ours a better place to live in.

AND WHY NOT MAYO? For most Mayo supporters, following the county team is a birthright. Why would someone with no Mayo roots, in fact someone with no tangible Irish connections, choose to join our ranks? So why would an American, with no Irish blood in his veins, follow a county whose victories over the last 70 years has been, let's just say, rather meagre? And why not Mayo. Well, take some other "big" teams from around the world – Manchester United, Barcelona, New York Yankees etc They're always in the news, always winning, and their merchandise is everywhere. It's much easier to cheer on the big clubs, as their publicity travels farther than for the likes of Mayo.

But that's what makes following a less heralded team so much more rewarding. It takes a bit of effort to seek out information, to learn the players and personalities, and even listen to or watch the games. And while we know that Mayo is different from all the other county teams, everyone bar Tyrone wants us to win this weekend. Like the Saw Doctors Song "To win just once, would be enough" that's all our desire. Nothing more nothing less. Fast forward to today 11th September 2021 and we're back in the All Ireland Final once again and devotion to the Green and Red is immense. Well just look around you at the moment in Glencorrib & Shrule. Flags, bunting, cars decorated in green and red and even a church. Our gut wrenching quest for All-Ireland success over the last 70 years is unyielding and rooting for Mayo just happens naturally. UP MAYO.

SHRULE PARISH is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church. Please see notice board for contact details.

CHILDREN'S NOTES TO GOD

A nun asked her class to write notes to God. Here are some of the notes the children handed in.

- Dear God: I didn't think orange went with purple until I saw the sunset You made on Tuesday. That was cool.
- Dear God: Instead of letting people die and having to make new ones, why don't You just keep the ones You have?
- Dear God: Maybe Cain and Abel would not have killed each other so much if they had their own rooms. That's what my Mom did for me and my brother.
- Dear God: If You watch me in church on Sunday, I'll show You my new shoes.
- Dear God: I bet it is very hard for You to love all of everybody in the whole world. There are only 4 people in our family and I'm having a hard time loving all of them.
- Dear God: In school they told us what You do. Who does it when You're on vacation?
- Dear God: Are You really invisible or is it just a trick?
- Dear God: Is it true my father won't get in Heaven if he uses his bowling words in the house?
- Dear God: Did You mean for the Giraffe to look like that or was it an accident?
- Dear God: I went to this wedding and they kissed right in the church. Is that okay?
- Dear God: Did You really mean "do unto others as they do unto you"? Because if You did, then I'm going to get my brother good.
- Dear God: Please send me a pony. I never asked for anything before. You can look it up.
- Dear God: I want to be just like my Daddy when I get big, but not with so much hair all over.
- Dear God: You don't have to worry about me; I always look both ways.
- Dear God: Of all the people who work for You I like Noah and David the best.
- Dear God: My brother told me about being born, but it doesn't sound right. They're just kidding, aren't they?
- Dear God: We read Thomas Edison made light. But in Sunday school they said You did it. So, I bet he stole Your idea.

what will kids say next?

The Helper

A pastor is walking down the street one day when he notices a very small boy trying to press a doorbell on a house across the street. However, the boy is very small and the doorbell is too high for him to reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for some time, the pastor moves closer to the boy's position. He steps smartly across the street, walks up behind the little fellow and, placing his hand kindly on the child's shoulder leans over and gives the doorbell a solid ring.

Crouching down to the child's level, the pastor smiles benevolently and asks, "And now what, my little man?" To which the boy replies, "Now we run!"
