

HISTORIC SITES

Royal Seats, scenes of historic events—battles, mass meetings, historic festivals, &c. Location. Landowner. Historical or traditional notes.

Mullaghferry, now a townland on which several families, mainly Protestant, are settled, is regarded as the site of the great assembly place of the followers of the King, Aulley, who was baptized near here with his seven sons and twelve thousand men, by St. Patrick. It is believed that St. Patrick built a square mud-wall church near this assembly place but there is no trace whatever of this nor is the site known. ~~It was not erected on the site of the present Protestant Church.~~ Great fairs and meetings were held at Mullaghferry.
