The Report of the Workhouse Master was read of which the following is a copy:—

Baltimore Workhouse
December 14th 1865

Gentlemen,

About the hour of 10 o'clock on the evening of Thursday last, I received a message from Anne Kennedy an inmate of the Hospital requesting to see me, I therefore proceeded to the ward occupied by Anne Kennedy; she asked me if it

The cases of provisional relief, and applications for relief were considered and decided on, as set forth in the Application and Report Books.

The number of Provisional Admissions to the Workhouse confirmed was	-	-	4
Ditto disallowed	-	-	1
The number of applicants admitted to the Workhouse was	-	-	3
The number of cases of provisional Out-door relief was	-	-	nil
Do. do. in which relief was continued by the Guardians	-	-	nil
The number of other applicants in the Relieving Officer's Books relieved by order of the Guardians was	-	-	nil
The number of applicants for whom relief was not ordered	-	-	nil

The Bonds and other securities in force were laid before the Guardians by the Clerk, together with his Report thereon, as follows: (this on the second Meeting after the Annual Election in every year.)

were true, that the Board of Guardians had made an order for her compulsory discharge from the Workhouse, I replied in the affirmative, and was in the act of conversing with her on the subject when the Rev: Michael Brennan, Roman Catholic Curate of Ballinacree, entered the ward, and stated in presence of Anne Kennedy, and the other occupants of the ward, that the Order of the Guardians was an inhuman one, and that he would make use of physical force to prevent its being executed, and he counselled his hearers to have recourse to the same means, — from the language made use of by the Rev: Mr. Brennan, I considered that without the aid of the Constabulary any attempt on my part to carry into effect the order of the Board of Guardians would result in a breach of the Peace, and I gave an intimation to that effect before Colonel Knox, M.P. and Matthew Kennedy, M.P. a copy of which I lay before you,

On Friday the 8th Inst. Anne Kennedy applied for her discharge, which I was prepared to give her at the expiration of three hours after the time she applied, which would be about 5 o'clock P.M. — but before the three hours had expired a mob of nearly 200 persons had collected at the entrance gate, and evinced a very riotous disposition, hanting and growling, — the Police were present under the command of George Abbott Esq, Sub-Inspector, and accompanied by George Maloney, R.C.P., and Colonel Knox, M.P. — from the threatening attitude assumed by the Mob, Mr. Maloney advised me to withhold the discharge of Anne Kennedy until the following morning, which I did, as I considered it to be the wisest course to adopt under the circumstances,

On the morning of the 9th Instant, the Constabulary again arrived at the Workhouse under the Command command of Mr. Abbott, and accompanied by George A. Molony, Esq. R. L. O., Colonel Knox, M.P. and Stanhope Henry Esq. M.P. Anne Kennedy to old her discharge about eleven o'clock A.M., and left the Workhouse in a covered Car accompanied by her Husband (Samuel Kennedy) and the Rev. Mr. Brennan, about an hour before she left the Workhouse, on Saturday, her Husband went to see her to the Hospital, and whilst he was going through the women's Ward a stone was flung at him but it did not do him any injury; he could not ascertain who flung the stone, the women created considerable noise, cheering and groaning at intervals, of Ballinacorney who said on his Oath that on the evening of the 7th Dec<sup>r</sup>. 1865 he was in the Workhouse of the Ballinacorney Union acting in the discharge of my public duties, I entered one of the wards in the Infirmary of said Workhouse in which a patient named Anne Kennedy was located, I informed Anne Kennedy that her Husband applied for her discharge to the Board of Guardians, and that the Board directed me to effect her removal from the Workhouse, whilst I was speaking to Anne Kennedy, the Rev. Mr. Brennan, one of the Roman Catholic Curates of the Parish entered into the Ward and stated in my presence, and in the presence of several of the paupers, that the Guardians order was an inhuman one, and that he would use physical force to resist its execution, and would advise the people who were there, and who heard him, to use physical force to resist the order and prevent her removal. — from the Rev. Mr. Brennan's statement addressed to the paupers, I would not consider it safe to remove Anne Kennedy without the aid of the Police, as I am apprehensive that without their assistance the public peace may be endangered, and consequences would probably result which it might be difficult to conjecture.

And the said Informant binds himself to attend at Ballinacorney Pelley Lepious when called upon, to sustain this Information, or otherwise to forfeit to the Crown the sum of Five pounds.
