Sunday 11th July 2024 – 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, Anyone who eats this bread will live forever."

Priest: Fr Chris Brennan Mob (087) 1962 674 Email: parishig2017@gmail.com
Newsletter: Liam Keaveney Mob (087) 1361 895 Email: islandeadyadm@gmail.com

In the readings this weekend the living bread that comes down from heaven is the flesh of Christ given up for the life of the world. The sacrifice of Christ on the cross gives life. In the strength of the bread of the Eucharist we can make our pilgrim journey through life to the Kingdom.

They say that when it rains while you are in the Cemetery; it is the happy tears of loved ones from heaven..! It rained quite a bit last weekend in Glenisland & Islandeedy, but that didn't deter the massive crowds that attended the cemetery masses. This year the numbers surpassed previous years. Fr. Chris & the Pastoral Council would like to thank the RSS, the stewards, the many volunteers & other people who work behind the scenes to ensure the smooth running of events in both cemeteries. Thanks to everyone who tended to their family graves & who keep our cemeteries clean & tidy in memory of our dearly departed!

The Graveyard Committee would like to identify the final resting places of parishioners in the old part of Glenisland Cemetery. There probably is no correct time to do such an activity, but as time progresses there is a concern that knowledge could be lost. Our plan is to erect a very simple cross with the name & date of death of the deceased. You can reach out to any of the below individuals, any information is greatly appreciated. Alan Barrett (087) 6877499 / Joseph Fahey (087) 9403965 / John Ruane (087) 2775733.

“Addergoole People & Culture – A testament” by Westport native Peter McLoughlin is a book which will be launched in Laherdane Community Centre this Monday Aug 12th at 8pm by Fr. Brendan Hoban. The book containing over 700 pages, photographs, documents & newspaper snippets details the families in Addergoole from the 1850's to the present day & will be a valuable resource to the people of the area & those tracing family ancestry. This may be of interest to people from this Parish as we neighbour the Addergoole Parish & you may find your Ancestors in this book (I did by accident, my 4 times great-grandparents from Boleyglass..!). A future project Islandeedy Heritage Group might undertake in the future maybe..??? Book is on sale for €35. All welcome to Laherdane this Mon evening!

In advance of Heritage Day there will be an important meeting of the Islandeedy Heritage Group this Tuesday 13th August in Jack's Cottage at 8pm. All Welcome.

Islandeedy Village Enhancement Group would like to thank the contractors & the Engineers with Mayo Co. Co. on the work undertaken recently in the Islandeedy Village removing the 2 bends in the road to make it safer for motorists & pedestrians entering/exiting the Islandeedy Village from the top side of the church. Thanks to the McDonagh Family, Derrycourane for giving permission for this work to be done which will go a long way to enhancing safety on the road at the entrance to the village.
