Fr. Martin O'Connor's Retirement

Kilvine Parish Pastoral Council wish to say thanks to everyone who did so much to ensure Fr. Martin's final Masses as PP in our parish were such special occasions. The large crowds that attended are testament to the high regard that Fr. Martin is held in both Irishtown and Ballindine. We wish Fr. Martin many years of health and happiness in his retirement. A special thanks to all who organised/contributed to the light refreshments held after both Masses. It certainly showcased the best of our community.

We extend a very special "Céad míle fáilte" to Fr. Sean Flynn as he takes up his new role as PP in Kilvine, Crossboyne and Taugheen. We wish him every success and we hope that he finds happiness and fulfillment in our twin parishes.
