Columbans

Each year, Archbishop Francis permits one missionary congregation to make an appeal for support in the Parishes of the Archdiocese. This year, the Columban Missionary Society will make its appeal. One of the founders of the Columbans, or the Maynooth Mission to China as it was previously known, was John Blowick, a native of Belcarra. The original house of formation for the Columbans was in Dalgan near Shrute. The Society is now based in Dalgan Park in Navan. The Columbans work in the Far East, China, Korea, South America and many other parts of the world.
