4th Week of Easter

21st April, 2024

Fr John Geelan P.P.

Our Bishop Paul Dempsey has been appointed as auxillary bishop to the diocese of Dublin. The appointment was announced by the Papal Nuncio on Wednesday, 10th April, after a 10.00am mass with the bishops of the Western Province in the Cathedral of the Assumption, Tuam. The decision is a historic moment for our diocese of Achonry as it means our diocese may never again have its own appointed bishop.

Bishop Kevin Doran, Bishop of Elphin, has been appointed Apostolic Administrator of Achonry. Such changes to the structure of our church will be echoed across Ireland in the years to come.

We welcome Bishop Kevin and pay tribute to Bishop Paul. May the Grace of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit guide them always.
